TRINITY PRAYER

FROM THE THIRD CENTURY

May none of God's wonderful works
keep silence, night or morning.

Bright stars, high mountains,
the depths of the seas,
sources of rushing rivers:

may all these break into song
as we sing

to Father, Son and Holy Sprit.

May all the angels in heaven reply:

Amen! Amen! Amen!

THIS SUNDAY

WELCOME TO ST MARY'S AS WE CELEBRATE THE FEAST OF THE HOLY TRINITY, A SPECIAL DAY FOR THE PARISH OF ST MARY & HOLY TRINITY, BOW

TODAY'S BIBLE READINGS

ISAIAH 6.1-8. Isaiah was called to be a prophet by an overpowering vision of the magnificence and holiness of God, whose glory filled the Temple in Jerusalem and, indeed, the whole world.

JOHN 3.1-17. Nicodemus had to learn that a new kind of birth is necessary to carry us into a new kind of life. God's only Son unites heaven and earth, and his Spirit, moving unseen like the wind, brings us into eternal life.

BOW FAIR

A very big thank you to everyone who helped with yesterday's Fete. As this is being typed before the event, we do not know how things went in the blazing heat/ pouring rain/ overcrowding/ empty churchyard! But we do know that a lot of folk worked very hard, so, whatever the outcome: THANK YOU! Details of what really happened next week.

METHODIST GUESTS - OR NOT!

There was a late change of Methodist plans when their congregation decided that while their own building was being refurbished an 11.00 am service at Old Ford Methodist Church was probably more sensible than a 9.00 am one here! We wish them well and look forward to seeing their church in all its done-up glory!

ALL THAT JAZZ!

Peter Marshall and his friends in the Jeffery Wilson Band will be performing their splendid 'Reduced History of Jazz' again on Sunday July 5th (7.30) at the Royal Foundation of St Katherine. Tickets £12. The concert will be in support of Richard House children's hospice.

NOTHING COULD BE FINER.....

Thanks to a friend of Joy Wotton, we have discovered another famous parishioner! Philip Ludwell, who died in 1716 and is, apparently, buried in our crypt (which has been sealed up for 120 years!) was the Governor of South and North Carolina and a leading politician in Virginia. After an active career in colonial America he retired to 'relative obscurity' in Bow! It will be a good thing to be able to tell visitors from across the pond!
