The following prayer is offered by the Reverend Jim Harry, House Chaplain.

"Our Gracious God:

"This has been a long and harried day. It has been one with a lot of excitement and reuniting and confusion about what is coming next. And so, we pray that You would cause us to stop and to pause and to take notice of the stillness of this moment. Keep our hearts from racing and keep us safe, until we find our rest in Thee. Amen."

The Speaker leads the Body in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Leaves of absence are granted Representatives Barnhart, Carney, Dockham, Haire, Holliman, Killian, Starnes, Tucker, and Wright for today.

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE2007 GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Senate Chamber
September 10, 2007

Mr. Speaker:

It is ordered that a message be sent to the House of Representatives informing that Honorable Body that the Senate is convened in Extra Session, pursuant to the Proclamation issued by the Governor on September 10, 2007, and is now organized and ready to proceed with the public business of the State.

SECOND DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Tuesday, September 11, 2007

The House meets at 10:05 a.m. pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Speaker.

The following remarks and prayer are offered by the Reverend Jim Harry, House Chaplain:

-----Moment of Silence-----

(In precious memory of the lives that were lost and the events of 9/11 that will forever have a profound effect on the American psyche.)

"Merciful God:

"Indeed we are blessed to live in a land that believes in the freedom of each individual; a land where we believe that life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness is the God-given right for all people. Six years ago today, this understanding of liberty was attacked by forces that felt threatened because their stranglehold on power was called into judgment and contempt by the divine gift of human equality. We believe that this attack on our land was an act of cowardice and evil. Our hearts still bend in pain as we consider the sights and sounds of that day. This morning, we pray for all those who lost their lives in this horrible event. Especially, we pray for the families of those who died who are reliving their grief this morning and will do so for the rest of their days on the anniversary of what we now call, simply... '9/11'. O God of love and compassion, comfort and be with them in their time of sorrow and give them hope for the joy of a brighter day. We pray also for our Nation and our resolve to continue to live our lives in the pursuit of the liberties set forth in our Constitution. Guide our government and be with our leaders that they may lead us with conviction and courage. O God of yesterday, today and tomorrow, in this moment of silence and prayerful reflection, bind up our wounded hearts. Bring joy out of sorrow; courage out of fear; and may doubt fade away into the sunrise of hope. And, now, O Lord, grant this Honorable Body Your wisdom to do Your bidding, on the matter that is before them, we humbly pray. Amen."

September 11, 2007

Representative Owens, for the Committee on Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House, reports the Journal of September 10 has been examined and found correct. Upon his motion, the Journal is approved as written.

Leaves of absence are granted Representatives Barnhart, Dockham, Haire, Holliman, Holmes, Killian, Ray, Starnes, Tucker, Walker, and Wright for today. Representatives Brubaker, Carney, Setzer, Thomas, Underhill, and Wainwright are excused for a portion of the Session.
